

Keep our town going!

When you shop at your local grocery store, you're helping to keep it as a source for healthy food for your family and the others in your community! Next time you're ready for a big shopping trip, consider shopping locally first. Because when you buy what you need, instead of what you forgot, you're doing more than just picking up the milk. You're keeping our town going.